

SLC

APD SUPPORTED LIVING COACH TRAINING REQUIREMENTS QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE

EDUCATION

Providers of supported living coaching services can be solo providers or employees of agencies.

Providers of supported living coaching services must meet at a minimum, one of the following requirements:

- A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with a major in education, rehabilitative science, business or a related degree
- An associate's degree or two years of college from an accredited college or university and have two years of documented direct experience with recipients with developmental disabilities
- One year of college from an accredited college or university and three years of documented direct experience in working with recipients with developmental disabilities
- Four years of direct professional experience in working with recipients with developmental disabilities may substitute for college on a year for year basis. The provider must hold a high school or GED diploma.

REQUIRED PROVIDER BASIC TRAINING

- Requirements for all Waiver Providers
 - Zero Tolerance
 - Direct Care Core Competencies
 - First Aid
 - HIPAA
 - CPR
 - HIV-AIDS/Bloodborne Pathogens
 - Social Security Work Incentives
 - In-service Training – 8 hours annually
- Please refer to the i-Budget Handbook, Appendix C, for Service Specific Training Requirements. All other training requirements can be found in the i-Budget Handbook, Appendix B, Table 1.

SLC PRE-SERVICE TRAINING

SLC Pre-service training must be completed prior to providing services.

- Introduction to Supported Living
- Roles of Various Providers
- Coaching Services and Requirements
- The Planning Process
- Documentation
- Supporting People to Succeed
- Enhancing Quality